

Finding a venue that is adequately sized and which could store x2 / x3 table tennis tables has been a little difficult. Malmesbury leisure centre are unable to offer a secure and regular slot.

Presently enquiring of the Dolphins Hall. It looks like the group is not really going to get established until October.

The aim is to have 1 to 2 hours of social and gentle table tennis with an 'in-group' league for the more competitive members. How the sessions will play out depends a little on individual competencies. It may be that we are all equally as bad as the other or that the group splits into the 'cream' and the 'skimmed milk'!
