

"In 2021 the History Group have broadened their scope to examine how technology, industry and the arts have impacted on the country and people's lives over time. It is hoped that this might include visits to local sites of interest which illustrate these themes. However, the Group Leader is happy to coordinate any other areas of historical research that new members may wish to pursue and members are encouraged to make presentations on their subjects of interest at Group meetings."